IV. TREASURER'S REPORT

- Gary Rische gave the financial report. Patti Cunningham discussed the Blastathon profits. Ms. Cunningham explained that student financial participation was only about 30% this year with concession and silent auction monies improved. Other donations from Pass the Hat and the Rotary Club also did well.

V. DIRECTOR'S REPORT

- Kenny Vise thanked all the volunteers for their work during the rain storm at the marching competition last weekend. Mr. Vise put out an appeal to please check in at the office before coming to the band hall and to not park in the Administration lot. Mr. Vise also reported that the Jazz Ensemble performed well at their first performance at the Lake Travis Education Foundation Golf Tournament and the band student participation during Blastathon went well and was lots of fun.

VI. BRICK CAMPAIGN

- Kathy Kilberg spoke to the general assembly about the Brick campaign and gave a brief history. Ms. Kilberg explained that the bricks would go on a wall inside the new band hall and that forms to order bricks are available on the website. The bricks are expected to be installed sometime in June 2008.

VII. FIRST VP NANCY HOFER (CONCESSIONS, PICNIC, BANQUET)

- A report was given by Julie Roth in Ms. Hofer's absence. Ms. Roth noted that the first game went well and asked that concession workers park at the upper stadium.

VIII. SECOND VP DEBBIE GUIDA (FUNDRAISING)

- Debbie Guida thanked Patti Cunningham and Lisa Lawrence for their outstanding job putting together Blastathon.

IX. THIRD VP MICHELE DAVIS (SPONSORS, DIRECTORY, BAND STORE)

- Sara Berg spoke on behalf of Sponsorships, explaining that a Matching Gift Program has been started. Also, Ms. Berg asked that we thank Dr. Dobson of Bee Cave Vision for his latest sponsorship purchase.
- Kristi Sisk spoke on behalf of the Band Store asking that we keep items in mind for Christmas gifts. Also, she mentioned that a survey would go out sometime in January asking for new ideas for the store for next year as well as items that might need to be discontinued.

X. FOURTH VP STACY BRAY (OPERATIONS)

Stacy Bray asked that everyone thank Mark Hofer for heading up water duty at all the games. She asked for volunteers to help continue make it run smoothly in the future.

XI. OLD BUSINESS

- Mark Scott explained that a new copy machine has been donated by Dahill Industries and that band parents purchased a maintenance contract for one year to keep it operational.
- Julie Johnson asked that everyone who did not get a NY picture please pick one up before they are filed away.

XII. NEW BUSINESS

- Chris Ching asked for volunteers to take over Study Hall for next year.
- Karen O'Neal invited anyone who was unsure about where to volunteer, contact her to explore options for the best fit.

XIII. ADJOURN

The meeting adjourned at 7:49.
